MY PERSONAL SKILLS AND QUALITIES

I am patient, understanding, friendly and kind. I love meeting people and have a genuine interest in them. My study of languages has accentuated my love to communicate and has taught me the skills necessary to do so on any level.

My travels around Europe and Asia and time living abroad has given me a great understanding of different cultures and people.

I am considered an expert in MS Word and Adobe Acrobat but am highly competent and confident in all MS Office applications, and very capable with a PC in general.

I am a competent speaker of French, basic speaker of Russian, German and Spanish.

MY OTHER INTERESTS AND HOBBIES

I have varied interests, which consist mainly of reading, films, crafts, cooking and baking, piano playing, writing, and socialising with family and friends.

I represented my school at hockey, tennis, netball, badminton and cross- country and still have a great interest in most sports.

I studied piano up to Grade 8, and cello up to Grade 5.

I am part of a book club, which meets every 6-8 weeks.

I practice yoga and mindfulness and play rounders.

I volunteered twice a week for refugees in a social drop-in group and taught them English for a year 2018-2019.
